

Dr. Mugume Sam Koojo
- Board Member-

Dr. Mugume Sam Koojo, a Ugandan national, is currently the Principle statistician at Ministry of Finance and Economic planning, a lecturer at Mountains of the Moon University. He has twenty five years of professional experience in the non-profit arena. Since 1993, he has worked with non-government organizations and the local government of Uganda. He has previously worked with Kabarole District Local Government serving as the district planner and initially as the head of Natural resources department.

He holds a PhD in Conservation Biology from Makerere University, a masters degree in Environment and Natural resources management, a bachelors of statistics degree with special focus on development planning from Makerere University, a post graduate diploma in Monitoring and Evaluation from Uganda Management Institute, a certificate in project Monitoring and Evaluation from IDCA-Swaziland, a post graduate certificate in project planning from Makerere University, a certificate in environmental policy from KOICA-Korea, a certificate in trade in services from CVEC Wuhan-China and a certificate in Geographical information system and remote sensing from CDAC-India.

His publications have notably been recorded in Journal of mammalogy 96(5):998-1004, African journal of ecology 53, 465-472, journal of primatology, and wildlife conservation society. He possesses broad cross-functional experience in program design and management, policy analysis, strategic communications, research, Monitoring and Evaluation. Dr. Mugume Sam Koojo is an innovative and creative thinker, he has a remarkable aptitude for cultivating relationships that deliver exceptional results.